

Let's go outside

It's time to start living al fresco once again. And here are some goodies to help you do it stylishly

1 Insane price tag, but think of this piece as directional. Someone make it in polypropylene please. Concrete Chesterfield, £4,000, from Indian Ocean (indian-ocean.co.uk).

2 Simply a classic. Fishing light, £65, from Garden Trading (gardentrading.co.uk).

3 Plastic cans are best. Haws heavy-duty plastic watering can, £25.45, from Harrod Horticultural (harrodhorticultural.com).

4 Silly, but only a fiver and fine for your ranunculus. Handbag planter, £5, from Asda (direct.asda.com).

5 This has a waterproof lining to protect contents in winter. Aiden trunk, £284, from Habitat (habitat.co.uk).

6 Giant-sized and colonial. Lantern (H: 58cm), £48, from Graham & Green (grahamandgreen.co.uk).

7 Give the garden some zing. Polynesia parasol by Ella Peters, £145, from Heal's (heals.co.uk).

8 The new way to garden - at thigh height. Small herb table with shelf (W: 90cm x D: 60cm x H: 90cm), £179.95, from Sparrow and Finch (sparrowandfinch.co.uk).

9 Burgon & Ball do the best tools in town and these ones are "designer". Secateurs by Sophie Conran, £19.95, Burgon & Ball (burgonandball.com).

10 This brand new design makes digging a doddle. Radius Pro Lite Fork (ref 51728, H: 1.23m), £28.99, from Lakeland (lakeland.co.uk).

11 Because gnomes are not for life - they're just for summer. Gnome candles, £7.25 each, from homegardeningliving.co.uk. Susie Steiner
